Definition of Home Occupation - The conduct of a business within a dwelling unit or residential site, employing only the occupants of the dwelling, with the business activity being subordinate to the residential use of the property and no client visits to the home.

Zoning Ordinance Section D4-33, Home Occupations requires that you comply with the Conditions of Approval as listed on the next page. If you cannot comply with the regulations below, please contact the City of San Ramon Planning Services Division at (925) 973-2560 prior to submitting your application.

- Regulations:
• No clients shall visit the residence.
• The use shall be incidental to the residential use of the dwelling.
• The use shall be conducted entirely within a portion of the main building, not within any required parking facility and does not exceed twenty percent (20%) of the building's square footage, excluding garage square footage.
• No outside storage shall be permitted.
• No article shall be sold or offered for sale on the premises.
• No person other than the residents of the dwelling shall be employed on-site or report to work at the site in the conduct of the home occupation.
• The use shall not generate vehicular or pedestrian traffic in excess of that which is normally associated with the residential use in the same district.
• No parking spaces shall be obstructed or additional parking space required for the home occupation.
• There shall be no exterior indication of the home occupation, including signs on the premises.
• The use shall not create noise, odor, dust, fumes, vibration, smoke, electrical interference, or any other interference with residential uses of adjacent property.
• No motor vehicle repair or personal services shall be offered on-site.
• The address of the home occupation shall not be advertised in any publications. (Business cards and letterhead are not included in this requirement.)

Applicant's Signature: I declare under penalty of perjury that all of the submitted information is true and correct to the best of my knowledge and belief. I have read and agree to abide by the regulations and conditions of approval listed on this application. I understand that my misrepresentations of submitted data may invalidate any approval of this application. If the home occupation is not operated in compliance with these regulations, the permit may be revoked by the Zoning Administrator.
